Dear Sir:

Recently I had information of a catalogue of the "Dreyfous Collection of Medals," which had been prepared, if I am correctly informed, by Mr. Hill of the British Museum. I suspect that this publication will prove to have been privately issued, but its importance is such that I should be very glad to learn if there is any possibility of securing a copy for our library, where its value and usefulness will be obvious. I should greatly appreciate any information you may be able to give me, especially if the catalogue is one which may be purchased.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

May I add to the formal acknowledgment, signed by our President and enclosed herewith, a word of warm personal appreciation for a generous gift to our library of the Catalogue of The Dreyfus Collection. We are very glad indeed to have this important work, which must needs be consulted by anyone who is studying in this field.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

Responding to your note of the 15th, permit me to acknowledge receipt of the Catalogue of the Bronzes of the Dreyfus Collection, with which you have supplemented your generous gift of the two volumes devoted to the Medals and to the Plaquettes. Thank you very much indeed. The earlier volumes have been much admired, and, needless to say, we are very glad to have this addition to them. I shall have pleasure in calling attention to your gift at the next meeting of our Council.

Very truly yours,
